Continued business

Cleveland – Joe – are still working on bi-laws approval

Green Valley – Wendy – are working on bi-laws approval

Green Valley - Kirsten – Big Rapids Solar; 97 and Equity update

- Cleveland does not have a solar ordinance or zoning
- One Energy is the developer, WPS is the utility
- Committee is encouraging continues documentation

McMillian – passed wind ordinances

Public Comment: Cindy Nielson: Encourages town to continue working hard. Express displeasure with the whole way this is handled from the developer to the county. Express that that residents will back the townships if the township protects them.

New Business

- 1.) Committee advises towns to retain Remzy Bitar as their lawyer on renewable energy matters
- 2.) Discussion on possible 100MW ordinance
- 3.) Discussion on the County Committees
 - a. If the County signs a JDA, and if a township has either zoning and/or ordinance those regulations will supersede the County JDA
 - b. What is the county doing and how does it affect the townships
 - c. Large concern of the county making decisions without proper background knowledge
- 4.) Alliant Energy is attending Town of Day town board meeting and is communicating with residents
- 5.) 12-month Moratoriums on BESS and Data Center
- 6.) Letter of intent / agreement / insurance- left to Bitar
- 7.) Hub City Open house, encourage promotion
- 8.) Annual meetings went well and good feedback from IG members presentations
- 9.) Members appreciated the background on the PSC process
 - a. Intervention and Bitar
- 10.) Stray voltage

Adjournment

Motion (Jackie Dillinger/ Dave Scheuer) to adjourn at 9:23 P.M. Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted by Trine Spindler
